DATA CONTROLLER

The owner of this website is MULTI-COLOR S.r.l. and for any clarification or exercise of their rights, the user can be contacted at the email address: info@italstereo.it

PROCESSED DATA

a) Navigation data

The computer systems and software procedures used to operate this website acquire, during their normal operation, some personal data whose transmission is implicit in the use of Internet communication protocols.

This is information that is not collected to be associated with identified interested parties, but which by their very nature could, through processing and association with data held by third parties, allow users to be identified.

This category of data includes the IP addresses or domain names of the computers used by the users connecting to the site, the URI (Uniform Resource Identifier) addresses of the requested resources, the time of the request, the method used to submit the request. to the server, the size of the file obtained in response, the numerical code indicating the status of the response given by the server (successful, error, etc.) and other parameters relating to the operating system and the user's IT environment.

These data are used for the sole purpose of obtaining anonymous statistical information on the use of the site and to check its correct functioning.

The data could be used to ascertain responsibility in the event of hypothetical computer crimes against the site: except for this possibility, the data on web contacts do not currently persist for more than 30 days.

b) Personal data spontaneously provided

The optional, explicit and voluntary sending of e-mails to the address indicated on this site entails the subsequent acquisition of the sender's address, necessary to respond to requests, as well as any other personal data included in the message.

Another purpose of using personal data spontaneously provided is to subscribe to the newsletter service, only at the explicit request of the user through the appropriate format.

c) Cookies

No personal user data is acquired by the site in this regard.

Cookies are not used to transmit information of a personal nature, nor are so-called c.d. persistent cookies of any kind, or systems for tracking users.

The use of so-called session cookies (which are not stored permanently on the user's computer and disappear when the browser is closed) is strictly limited to the transmission of session identifiers (consisting of random numbers generated by the server) necessary to allow safe browsing and efficient site.

The so-called Session cookies used on this site avoid the use of other IT techniques that are potentially detrimental to the confidentiality of users' browsing and do not allow the acquisition of the user's personal identification data.

PURPOSE, GURIDIC BASIS OF THE TREATMENT

In relation to the personal data referred to in letter a) of this information, the personal data are processed automatically by MULTI-COLOR S.r.l. in order to allow navigation itself; in this case, the processing takes place on the basis of a legal obligation, as well as on the basis of the legitimate interest of the company to ensure the proper functioning and security of the website, therefore your express consent is not required. With regard to the personal data referred to in letter b) of this information, the processing is carried out in order to provide you with timely feedback; in this case, the processing is based on the execution of your request; your express consent is therefore not required.

NATURE OF THE PROVISION OF PERSONAL DATA

Without prejudice to what is specified for navigation data in relation to which the conferment is required, as it is instrumental to navigation on the MULTI-COLOR S.r.l. website, the user is free to provide personal data in order to receive information from the aforementioned company.

METHOD OF TREATMENT

The processing of personal data is carried out through the use of automated tools with reference to the access data to the pages of the website. The processing of personal data takes place in full compliance with the provisions aimed at guaranteeing security and confidentiality, as well as, among other things, the accuracy, updating and relevance of personal data with respect to the stated purposes. The above is processed in an automated form and collected exclusively for the purpose of verifying the correct functioning of the site and for security reasons. This information will be processed solely on the basis of the legitimate interests of MULTI-COLOR S.r.l. For security purposes, the automatically recorded data may possibly also include personal data such as the IP address, which could be used in accordance with the laws in force, in order to block attempts to damage the site or damage other users, as well as constituent activities crime. However, these identification data are never used for the identification or profiling of the user, but only for the purpose of protecting the site and its users, such information will be treated on the basis of the legitimate interests of the owner. The information that users of the site will deem to make public through the services and tools made available to them, are provided by the user knowingly and voluntarily, exempting this site from any liability for any violations of the law. It is up to the user to verify that they have permission to enter personal data of third parties or content protected by national and international standards.

DATA RETENTION PERIOD

Without prejudice to the fact that the navigation data referred to in letter a) do not persist for more than 30 days, the processing of personal data takes place for the time strictly necessary to achieve the purposes for which they were collected or in any case on the basis of the established deadlines, by law.

It is also specified that specific security measures are observed to prevent the loss of data, illicit or incorrect use and unauthorized access.

When the processing is based on the User's consent, the Data Controller can keep the Personal Data longer until such consent is revoked. Furthermore, the Data Controller may be obliged to keep Personal Data for a longer period in compliance with a legal obligation or by order of an authority.

At the end of the retention period, the Personal Data will be deleted. Therefore, at the end of this term the right of access, cancellation, rectification and the right to data portability can no longer be exercised.

RECIPIENTS OF PERSONAL DATA

Without prejudice to the communications made in execution of legal obligations, the data may be communicated, as authorized subjects for processing, to the subjects involved in the organization (administrative, commercial, marketing, legal, system administrators) or external subjects (such as third party technical service providers, postal couriers, hosting providers, IT companies, communication agencies) also appointed, if necessary, as Data Processors by the Data Controller.

The updated list of Managers can always be requested from the Data Controller.

RIGHTS OF THE INTERESTED PARTIES

The Regulation grants you the exercise of specific rights which are set out below:

- confirmation as to whether or not your personal data is being processed and, in this case, to obtain access (right of access) art. 15;
- the correction of inaccurate personal data, or the integration of incomplete personal data (right of rectification) Article 16;
- the deletion of the data, if there is one of the reasons provided for by the Regulation (right to be forgotten) Article 17;

- the limitation of processing when one of the hypotheses provided for by the Regulation (right of limitation) Article 18 occurs;
- to receive the personal data you have provided to the owner in a structured format, commonly used and readable by an automatic device and to transmit such data to another data controller (right to portability) art.20;
- opposition to the processing of personal data (right to object) Article 21.
- the right not to be subjected to a decision based solely on automated processing, including profiling (automated decision-making process relating to natural persons) Article 22.

EXERCISE OF RIGHTS

To exercise the rights to the processing of your personal data, you can send a request to the Data Controller, MULTI-COLOR S.r.l., to the e-mail address: info@italstereo.it

COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

Without prejudice to any other administrative and judicial action, the Data Controller has the right to lodge a complaint with the competent supervisory authority.
